

Financial sources 2023/2024

September 2025

Agora Energiewende is independent of corporate and political interests. Our work is funded by grants from private foundations and public institutions. We do not carry out commissioned research.

Philanthropic funds		2023	2024
Aspen Global Change Institute (AGCI) / CRUX	Research programme for power system transformation in various OECD and ODA countries	€ 4.420.150,67	€ 4.761.770,53
Climate Imperative Foundation	Programs for German and European energy system transformation	–	€ 7.457.154,33
European Climate Foundation	Various programmes for decarbonising the electricity and heating sectors in Europe		€ 1.199.025,34
	Several research programmes on the decarbonisation of the power and heat sectors in Europe, South Korea, South East Asia and the Balkan countries	€ 965.365,34
Growald Climate Fund	Establishment of the International Network of Energy Transition Think Tanks	–	€ 212.506,81
Sequoia Climate Foundation	Research programme for a climate-neutral economy in Germany and the EU	€ 1.530.821,74	€ 2.210.726,38
Stiftung Mercator	Research programme on climate-neutral economy in Germany and the EU		€ 1.400.000,00
	Research on the decarbonisation of the power and heat sectors in Germany and the EU	€ 1.132.300,00
Tara Climate Ltd	Research programmes on the transformation of the power sectors in South East and East Asia	€ 692.089,65	€ 1.078.519,81
Windward Fund	Research programme on the decarbonisation of the gas sector in Europe	€ 455.324,65	–
Total philanthropic funds		€ 9.196.052,05	€ 18.319.703,20

Public funds		2023	2024
Federal Office for Economic Affairs and Export Control (BAFA)	Research programme on power system transformation in Japan South Korea, Turkey and Brazil	€ 790.602,69	–
DLR Projektträger (German Aerospace Center)	Research on the economics of climate change	€ 19.348,16	–
Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) GmbH	Research programme for the development of a hydrogen economy		€ 774.115,70
	Several research programmes in European and international countries on power system transformation	€ 963.044,53
Kommunalkredit Public Consulting (KPC) GmbH	Research on lignite economies in Western Balkan countries	€ 125.986,00	–
Zukunft - Umwelt - Gesellschaft gGmbH	Training Programme for participants from ODA countries	€ 496.199,46	€ 24.182,97
Total public funds		€ 2.395.180,84	€ 798.298,76
Total philanthropic funds		€ 9.196.052,05	€ 18.319.703,20
Total		€ 11.591.232,89	€ 19.118.001,87

Agora Energiewende is part of the non-profit legal entity of the Agora Think Tanks gGmbH. Under the umbrella of the Agora Think Tanks, the three non-profit think tanks Agora Energiewende, Agora Industry and Agora Agriculture work towards the common goal of climate neutrality. To this end, the Agora Think Tanks develop scientifically sound and politically feasible solutions. In 2023, Agora Think Tanks gGmbH received funds totaling around 18,3 million euros and 2024 around 27,2 million euros.

The figures presented here represent the funds received during the fiscal year. In addition, the annual financial statements are prepared in accordance with the German Commercial Code (HGB) based on the accounting standard IDW RS HFA 21.